It is conceded that Frank, Republican, has defested Castlemen, Democrat, in the Ninth district, while Niedringhans, Republican, leads O'Nelli, Democrat, up to this hour. The R publican committee claim his mairrity will approximate 500. Kinsey, Rambilean, leads Clardy, Democrat, in the Tenth with a strong Democratic precinct to hear from. The Republican committee now claim that Kimbali, Re-publicar, will have a majority of 5000 in the city over Francis, Democrat, for Governor. Thirty-six voting precincts in St. Louis ont of a total of 152 give Harrison 7305; Cleveland, 7420; Francis, Democrat, for governor, 5289; Kimball, Republican, for governor, 7654. The redistricting of this city since the last election prevents a comparison being made with the vote of 1884. The Republicans claim the cmy by from 2000 to 3000, and the Democrati corate, but that the Republicans will claim it by about the same majority. A few scattering returns from outside the city show gains for noth Cleveland and Harrison, and large gains for Kimball over the Republican nominee for governor four years ago.
